

"WHITE" BOOBY DOWN

Family, State and Church
Should Draw Sharp Color
Line He Declares.

SEES NO RAY OF HOPE

In an exclusive interview given to the BOSTON SUNDAY AMERICAN by Bishop Brown, of Arkansas, he declared that this is a "white man's country," that the color line as well as the sex line was drawn by God, and that it is the duty of all to recognize it in the family, State and church.

So deep an interest has been taken in the statements made by Bishop Brown that the salient points of his interview are reprinted in the BOSTON AMERICAN to-day.

"I am naturally an optimist," said the Bishop, "but concerning the negro, while present conditions exist, I say, while present conditions exist, I am reluctantly obliged to be an out-and-out pessimist. I see no ray of hope. Things are going from bad to worse, and I am afraid they will continue doing so."

Negro Not Reliable.

"If the negro does not take his eyes away from the false ideals, which you Catholics, protestants and scheming politicians are holding up before him, he will take his place in the industrial field of the South, and then he will go the way of the Indian. Northern negroes, especially, and negroes throughout the country, are living in a false paradise, expecting to be placed where the Afro-American is destined to occupy in the South."

May Mean Extinction.

"Therefore, if education and wealth are being acquired rapidly and generally by the Southern negro, and if their acquisition will lead him to an attempt to secure that political preeminence to which, under our constitution, he is in many sections of the South successfully entitled, a race conflict involving which will ultimately exterminate him."

"The negro is generally really making progress in question, and if he does not give up politics it will turn out to be only another way to his destruction. It is a white man's country, and it is time, in my opinion, that the negro should be only one white man to two colored men in the South, even though he be of Northern birth and a freeholder, as I am, who would not shed his blood rather than to see the negro dominate again in political life."

Line Drawn by God.

"Take the text under consideration, the chief and consequently the most frequently quoted of all such texts, if interpreted in the manner in which it is by the church, the clergy and the laity, and it would be a source of confusion and confusion as to the true meaning of the text. It is a text which is not to be taken literally, and it is a text which is not to be taken literally, and it is a text which is not to be taken literally."

DEMOCRATS, GET TOGETHER, PUSH
LIVE ISSUES AND GO IN TO WIN

It is twenty-one days until the Presidential election. The Republicans are thoroughly organized, and are conducting an adroit campaign. Backed by those who hold the Government as a thing to be used in helping them to grow richer at the expense of the people, the Republican campaign managers have more money than even Hanna scared out of these same special privilege seekers in 1896. The National Republican strategists, not being attacked along their weakest lines, have assumed the offensive, and with an insolence born of confidence in the potency of the purchasing power of a dollar on election day, have shifted the lines of the fight to false issues.

There can be no victory without a fight. And a fight pressed to the limit of real Democratic issues will win.

IT IS TIME FOR THE DEMOCRATS TO GET BUSY.

What has been done is done, but the American people are quick thinkers, and the fundamental principles of Democracy proclaimed without fear, urged without apology, will work a revolution from the present deal-making apathy.

The Republican party was never more rotten than it is to-day. Leaders were never further away from the Constitution than are those now glorifying the citizenship of Roosevelt, who has usurped the functions of every branch of government.

No party was ever more slavish to selfish interests—criminal trusts and commercial freebooters—than is the Republican party this day.

Cortelyou, the national chairman, stepped from a cabinet position wherein he was expected to hold the lash over the lawbreakers and to furnish information that would enable Knox to put them in jail, and became a beggar for their money to debauch the ballot box.

AND CORTLEYOU GOT IT AND IS GETTING IT. AND THAT SHOWS HOW WELL PLEASED THE TRUSTS WERE WITH HIM AS A GOVERNMENT DETECTIVE SWORN TO RUN THEM TO COVER. THE SCANDAL OF THIS ALONE SHOULD DAMN ROOSEVELT'S ADMINISTRATION.

The Democracy has permitted the trust issues to become obscured in academic discussions of things on the other side of the earth.

It is well for the Filipinos to be free, but the paramount thing now is that the American people remain free.

IT HAS BEEN APPARENTLY FORGOTTEN THAT AN ENEMY OF THE LABOR, ORGANIZED OR UNORGANIZED, AND AN ISSUE HAS NOT BEEN PRESSED HOME TO THE AMERICAN PEOPLE.

What is the laboring man? The man making a salary, a dollar a day or a hundred dollars a day. That man is a laborer who has worked to get up a business and has pressed that business along honest and legitimate lines to success, competing fairly and meeting competition bravely.

These people will decide this election. They cannot be bought, though they may be occasionally sold out. The people may be fooled, but, as Lincoln put it, not all the time.

THE DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM AT ST. LOUIS MADE A SQUARE-OUT DECLARATION AGAINST ILLEGAL TRUSTS. IT CHARGED THE REPUBLICAN PARTY WITH FOSTERING TRUSTS. IT CALLED FOR THE TRUSTS TO GET OUT OF THE COUNTRY. IT SAID THAT IN THIS FAVOR TO TRUSTS THE REPUBLICAN PARTY WAS A FOE TO FREE LABOR.

It charged that in its favor to trusts the Republican party was in favor of cutting the throat of competition, encouraging monopoly and thereby reducing labor and all those not in trusts to a condition of penury.

And the Democratic party offered a remedy in that it demanded an enforcement of the law against trusts, and the dealing out of justice equally to all men.

DEMOCRACY STANDS FOR EQUALITY UNDER THE LAW, FOR OPPORTUNITY AND FOR PERSONAL FREEDOM.

It is for liberty of thought, for the equal standing of the grosest-handed workman, the clerk and the man of wealth before the courts, and it demands that the back door routes of the privileged classes to these same courts be closed.

THE TRUST PLANK OF THE ST. LOUIS PLATFORM SHOULD BE DISCUSSED. THE LABOR PLANK SHOULD BE DISCUSSED.

It should be driven into the hearts of the American voters that Democracy is against Republicanism because Republicanism is now a party of favorites and classes, just as it was when Jefferson demanded the rule and EQUALITY OF ALL PEOPLE, as against Hamilton, patron saint of Republicans, who advocated limited suffrage and the administration of Government by a centralized force made up of the privileged classes.

There is more in Democracy that lives and that Democrats have than is set down in so many words in the St. Louis platform. It has a common law that it gets from Jefferson, who believed in equality, and from Jackson, who, when a selfish power sought to make the Government part of its money-making machine, broke it down and went before the people on the question and won.

The radicalism of Democracy to-day is that it demands the same rule of law for the rich and poor, for the great man and the little man, and that is what its orators must preach to the people.

THE CRIMINAL TRUST IS AGAINST THE LAW—IS AGAINST THE LIBERTY OF COMMERCE—AGAINST THE FREEDOM OF COMPETITION—AND SEEKS TO MAKE A SLAVE OF EVERY MAN ON ITS PAYROLL, AND A SERF OF EVERY MAN SELLING ITS RAW MATERIAL OR BUYING ITS FINISHED PRODUCT.

PREACH THIS TO THE PEOPLE. IT IS DEMOCRACY. The trust has fixed the age limit when its work must be set aside to starve or beg. It has reduced salaries and reduced men. It has increased the cost of living to a point never before reached, even when food and clothing were sold in the depreciated money of war times.

THIS IS THE GREAT DEMOCRATIC ISSUE.

It is personal to every American voter. It can be taken into his home. It will in the end mean liberty or industrial and commercial slavery to the individual. The trust issue is in the St. Louis platform. Three more weeks remain to force the fighting.

The time is long enough if the issues are driven home. The Republicans have planned to dump $2,000,000 into the State of New York alone. But money is never as powerful as truth. Let the truth be told.

LET DEMOCRATS GET TOGETHER, BRING THE REAL ISSUES TO THE FRONT, STOP APOLOGIZING AND GO IN TO WIN.

The Democracy never dodged an issue and it is too old to begin now. It has in its platform and its splendid traditions issues that will command the support of liberty-loving Americans. They are the REAL Democratic issues, and Democrats, by being truly Democratic, can win by preaching them to the people.
